

BAC bill signed

By Jack C. Ventimiglia
Executive editor

GRANITE CITY — Changing the Belleville Area College Board election system is allowed by a bill Gov. James R. Thompson signed Thursday.

The BAC bill gives the public the right to petition for a referendum to change from at-large to sub-district elections of board members.

Calling the bill "a step into the future," former board member Avery Schermer, of Granite City, said Friday that after the November election he will ask the board to use a provision in the bill to change the election system without a referendum.

"My first order of business is the get the board to do it rather than wait for petitions," Schermer said. "If the board elected in November is against subdistricting, we get the petitions and we say to this board, 'Do you want to initiate it, or do you want the petitions forced down your throat?' I don't think they'd have the guts to go against it. What point would there be in their not doing it if they know we could do it with very little effort?"

Introduced in the House on Jan. 23 by Rep. Sam

Wolf, D-Granite City, the BAC bill responds to what Wolf said is a lack of districtwide representation on the college board. Since its formation in 1967, two from Madison County have been elected to the board; all others in the eight-county district were elected from St. Clair County.

"I think that now all communities of the community college district can be better represented," Wolf said Friday.

Sen. Sam Vadalabene, D-Edwardsville, who sponsored the bill in the Senate, said Friday, "I think it's a historic day for the constituents in the BAC college district."

BAC board member Elizabeth Jenner, of Mascoutah, said Friday that she would welcome a referendum to change the election system, but she expressed concern.

"I think the bill could result in some deviousness," Jenner said. "You would have to make sure each board member didn't think he was representing one part of the district. We have rural areas and urban areas."

Board member Francis Brasswell, of Belleville, said she would sign a referendum petition.

The BAC bill applied statewide when approved May 19 by the House, but opposition from the Illinois Community College Trustees Association jeopardized the bill in the Senate. When Vadalabene amended the bill to apply it only to BAC, the ICCAT withdrew opposition and the bill passed, 50-4, on June 22.

Pontoon hires Venice officer

PONTOON BEACH — Gary R. Wallace was hired as a probationary patrolman by the Village Board at its Sept. 22 meeting. His appointment was recommended by Trustee Bob Abel, Police Committee chairman.

Wallace, a Venice police officer for 3½ years, will bring the Pontoon Beach Police Department to a nine-man force, including Police Chief Chet Ballew.

He is the second Venice officer to join the village police department in the past four months. Patrolman Daniel McKinney, an eight-year veteran, was hired June 2.

Wallace, 38, is a graduate of Belleville Area College's Police Training Institute. He is a native of Venice, but will move into the village with his family, said Ballew.

The officer will start his assignment Sept. 28. Venice lost a third officer Aug. 31 when Patrolman Daniel Fleig resigned to join the Maryland Heights (Mo.) Police Department, it was learned last week.

The Pontoon Beach board also hired Richard Lynn Hays, 22, a police dispatcher for the village for the past three years, as a probationary patrolman/dispatcher.

A Pontoon Beach resident, Hays attended Emerson Grade School and graduated from Granite City High School. He will take firearms training and also attend the BAC Police Training Institute, starting in (See OFFICER, Page 6A)

CD letter from county inaccurate, says HUD

By Dave Gosnell
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — Federal officials have "clarified" claims by Madison County officials made in a letter to HUD regarding Granite City's participation in the county's Community Development program.

The city is considering pulling out of the county's program and receiving the federal money on its own.

Dick Wilson, a U.S. Housing and Urban Development official in Chicago, said in a letter to the city that statements made in a proposal by the county to the city were inaccurate.

Madison County Community Development Program Administrator Cheryl Jouett had said in the letter that the city would be required by HUD to act as an outside agency to provide fair housing counseling to residents in and outside the city, and that the city could not use the county to apply for Urban Development Action Grants if the city decided to pull out.

There is no HUD requirement that grantees hire outside agencies to provide fair housing counseling as stated (in the county's letter to the city), said Wilson. He said the city could simply verify that fair housing is being furthered by the city.

"The county could apply for UDAG on behalf of the city without a ... cooperation agreement in effect," Wilson said.

Jouett had said in the letter that administration of a city-run program might be too costly for the city, in part because of the counseling requirement.

The letter offered the city a grant of about 60 percent of what the city is entitled to in federal Community Development funds. The city has generally received less than its entitlement by the county. So far this year, (See LETTER, Page 6A)

Alton votes to stay in county's CD program

ALTON — The Alton City Council took action Wednesday that guarantees the city will receive more federal money than it now gets while assuring that the county Community Development Agency will continue.

The council voted unanimously to have the city remain in the Madison County Community Development program until 1991. The action assures that Madison County will continue to meet the population requirements to qualify for the federal Housing and Urban Development Department sponsored program, officials said.

Community development programs provide communities with federal money to upgrade blighted areas, promote business development and fix up homes of the poor.

Alton is considering two funding options that the county CD agency offered. Both would give the city more federal funds than it now gets.

The first option would give Alton $612,000 annually through 1991.

In addition, this offer includes unlimited access to all county community development programs, including the business loan and housing rehabilitation finance programs, said Cheryl Jouett, director of Madison County CD. The total available to Alton would vary, but should average $800,000 per year, she said.

The second option offers Alton $816,000 per year, but does not include access to the other programs. Mayor Bert Wuehler proposed this plan.

Jouett said the county will allow Alton six months to decide which offer to accept. Whichever it takes, the county will cover all administration costs and provide special help to the city in developing programs, she said.

Alton had threatened to pull out of the county CD agency. If it had, the city would have been eligible for up to $1 million in federal CD funds. However, Alton would have had to assume the administrative costs of about $200,000, netting the city about $800,000 yearly. The city now gets about $100,000 annually.

Alton's threatened action could have forced the disbanding of the regional CD agency.

Under federal regulations, a county CD agency must serve at least 200,000 people.

If both Alton and Granite City, which also has been considering forming its own development agency, had withdrawn, the county CD program would have disbanded. Madison County has an estimated population of 250,000.

Salvation Army more than bell ringers

By Bill Bagby
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — The familiar sounds of bells ringing at Christmas time remind everyone of the Salvation Army and its holiday help to the needy.

The holiday season program by the SA is a part of wide-ranging services provided by the Salvation Army throughout the year.

Maxine Rutter, a counselor at the local Salvation Army center, 3007 E. 23rd St., said food is a big item provided during the year. The center distributes surplus government commodities to Granite City Township residents each month. This month, Rutter said, more than 1,200 people were served.

Last year, 900 Christmas food baskets were given from money collected by the volunteer bell ringers, Rutter said.

Other aid, such as clothing, furniture and shelter, also is given.

Rutter said 107 fans were given away during unusually hot weather this summer. Counseling and other special assistance also is provided.

Programs are conducted for senior citizens and youths, and weekly religious services are held in the center's chapel, she said.

The Salvation Army is one of the agencies aided by the Tri-Cities Area United Way.

"The United Way is special to us," Rutter said.

The Salvation Army was started in 1865 when William Booth left the Methodist ministry to preach as an independent evangelist in the slums of London's East End. Some of the converts didn't feel at home in churches, so Booth set up Christian mission centers. In 1878, Booth adopted the Salvation Army name.

The work of the Salvation Army soon spread throughout the world, reaching the U.S. in 1880. In America today, the Salvation Army has 10,000 centers, 5,000 officers and 24,000 employees.

The motivation of the organization is the love of God and a practical concern for the needs of humanity.

Rutter said much of the work performed by the Salvation Army is voluntary.

"We couldn't do it without volunteers," she said.

Part three of the series will appear in next Sunday's issue.

Woman wins honors for school work

GRANITE CITY — A Granite City woman has won seven-county honors in a state program for her service to District 9.

Bea Stevenson will receive a plaque from the Illinois State Board of Education in its "Those Who Excel" Educational Awards Program in the category of "parent or other community member." She will receive the award at the banquet, Nov. 6, at Matteson, Ill.

"I'm very pleased about it," Stevenson said. "I'm not really a person to go out for awards."

Stevenson was the top winner in the Granite City area, said Rich Brinkhoff, District 9 administrative assistant. He has been "a force for good in the Granite City schools and community since her arrival 12 years ago."

Bea Stevenson is a mother who stands out above the crowd because of the service she has rendered to the schools and the community," Hall said, "but she gives herself no fanfare."

Stevenson has been active in the Namecki Elementary School and Granite City Area PTA Council, Hall said. This year, Hall said, Stevenson was responsible for raising the money and providing 110 T-shirts given as awards to "young author" winners in elementary and junior high schools. Stevenson was also involved in the formation of a scholarship program for high school band students, Hall said.

Other activities Stevenson has been involved with include the Red Cross blood drive, fingerprinting of kindergarten children, the I-Search program, Parents Without Partners, the Telephone for Forgotten Children and the In-Touch program.

"I've always enjoyed working (See BEA, Page 6A)

Though she knew earlier she had been nominated by the School Board, Stevenson didn't learn she had won until Monday. She said she was surprised at receiving the top honor.

In a letter of nomination to the "Those Who Excel" committee, Jean Hall, District 9 language arts supervisor, wrote that Stevenson has been "a force for good in the Granite City schools and community since her arrival 12 years ago."

Fresh Start stop-smoking workshop set for October

"Surgeon General's Warning: Quitting smoking now greatly reduces serious risks to your health."

This and similar reminders can be found on every packet of cigarettes sold in the United States. Yet, millions of people continue to smoke, unable to kick a habit which is said to take thousands of lives each year.

St. Elizabeth Medical Center is trying to help individuals quit the habit by providing a stopsmoking workshop for "those who really want to stop smoking." Fresh Start, developed by the American Cancer Society, will begin on Oct. 7, and will continue to meet every Wednesday, from 7-9 p.m., through Oct. 28.

Classes will be held in the Going Strong Wellness Center, 22nd and Iowa streets. Interested persons are encouraged to register early. Cost is $25 per person. To register or for more information, call 798-3WEL.

Church Women discuss project

Church Women United held its first meeting this fall at the Central Christian Church, 2020 Johnson Road, with Dorothy Kinney, vice president, presiding.

Committee reports were given by CWU project chairpersons. A new project, called New Imperative, is being started nationwide. The local chapter would like to take an active part, but help from volunteers is needed, Kinney said. A main intent of the project concerns women and children who must live in poverty and how the situation can be corrected. A workshop was held in Chicago on Sept. 25-27 to provide information.

"Music, Music" is a CWU annual event to raise money to build a chapel for women at the prison in Dwight, Ill. Last year, the fund-raiser also provided money to aid Mobile Meals and the Salvation Army in Granite City. Next year, the First Presbyterian Church in Granite City has offered to be the host church.

for this program. On Sept. 30, CWU is sponsoring a Fall Forum on drugs and AIDS, which will be held from 9:30 a.m. until 2 p.m. at the Second Baptist Church, 1200 Illinois Ave. Representatives from Piasa Health Care, Madison County schools and Coordinated Youth will discuss awareness and prevention. Those attending are asked to bring finger foods.

Elected to offices for 1988 were: Dorothy Kinney, president; Dorothy Luckert, first vice president; Mae Lee, second vice president; Flora Mae Lensing, secretary; and Eva Clemens, treasurer.

On the nominating committee will be Gladys Williams, chairperson, and Mabel Gertsch and Ruth Jensen.

All church representatives are requested to attend CWU board meetings, which are held the third Tuesday of every month at the Central Christian Church, the president said.

Mt. Nebo to host 'lesson' comedy

"The Slabtown District Convention," a play, will be presented at 6 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 27, at the Mt. Nebo Missionary Baptist Church, 600 Jefferson St., Venice. The play is a one-act comedy that teaches a lesson in church life. Shirley J. Hinkle is director, and the Rev. L. Tate, pastor.

Business

Stoppkotte to expand skating rink

By Bill Bagby
Staff writer

Stoppkotte's Super Skate, 1823 Cleveland Blvd., is expanding. Ground for the work was broken Tuesday during a gathering of local civic and business leaders.

One addition to the building will include an area where people can sit and eat or relax, owner George Stoppkotte said. He is also adding to his storage area, he said, which will lead to an addition to his line of concessions.

Stoppkotte, who is in his 30th year as owner of the rink, said roller skating is still a very popular activity. He said skating is more organized today, with national roller skating groups.

Stoppkotte, 62, began skating when he was 6 years old, he said. His wife, Liz, was a professional skater for a time.

"It's been our whole life," he said.

The Stoppkottes, along with their son, daughter and daughter-in-law, are involved in the operation of the rink, he said.

The roller rink is a popular place, especially for youths, Stoppkotte said. Many of them recognize the Stoppkottes when they see them around town and stop to say hello.

"We're just real well known," he said. "We're rather close to the kids."

The rink has also built up a reputation for its youth supervision,

Stoppkotte's daughter, he said.

The rink is open from 7-9 p.m. on Wednesdays and 7-11 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays. A children's matinee is held on Saturdays and Sundays from 2-4:30 p.m. Other times are booked for church or school events, Stoppkotte said.

Legal secretaries to honor bosses in Edwardsville

The Madison County Legal Secretaries Association will hold its annual "Bosses' Night" on Oct. 6 at the Sunset Hills Country Club, Edwardsville.

Cocktails will be at 6:30 p.m., with the banquet starting at 7:30. The theme for the evening will be "Polynesian Paradise."

The group will honor past bosses and legal secretaries of the year. A new boss and secretary of the year will be announced.

The banquet is open to legal secretaries and their bosses and anyone who is involved in the legal field. The cost is $25 per person. Melody Travers can be contacted at 466-9080 during the day.

Least phone cost to be identified

Gov. James Thompson has signed, with changes, House Bill 748, which amends the Public Utilities Act to provide that any telephone company offering more than one local phone service plan must provide customers with an annual report detailing which service would carry the lowest phone bill.

Development Authority created

SPRINGFIELD — Legislation to promote industrial, commercial and recreational growth in Madison and St. Clair counties through creation of the Southwest Illinois Development Authority has been signed into law by Gov. James R. Thompson.

"Southwest Illinois has enormous marketing potential," Thompson said Sept. 23. "The region's central location puts it less than a day away from most midwestern and northeastern industries by rail or truck. And international markets are accessible by the deep-water ports of Chicago and New Orleans."

"What the area lacks in economic power will be remedied with the bonding authority, backed by the financial commitment of the State of Illinois."

"This coordinated, cooperative approach between local officials and the state will improve the economic climate of the area and allow the Metro East region to compete."

"This is an initiative that I first presented in my 1987 State of the State address. It gives me great pleasure to see this legislation reach fruition. It will give me even greater pleasure to see renewed growth and development in the region in the years ahead."

House Bill 301 empowers it to issue revenue bonds to finance construction and other economic development projects in Madison and St. Clair counties and the state will assume "moral obligation" to pay debt service if the authority is unable to do so.

The legislation establishes an authority composed of 10 members, a majority of whom are appointed by the governor, including the director of Central Management Services. Four members will be appointed by the county board chairmen of Madison and St. Clair counties.

In addition, the authority can appoint four non-voting members, for a total of 14 members.

In August 1985, Thompson appointed a 50-member group of civic, political, business, academic and community leaders to advise him on economic priorities for Madison and St. Clair counties. The task force recommended riverfront development through the enactment of the authority, highway construction, and resolution of problems involving the Martin Luther King Bridge.

Last March, Illinois accepted formal title to the bridge, making it toll-free, and proceeded on efforts to improve bi-state crossing of the Mississippi River.

HB 301, effective immediately, was sponsored by Reps. Jim McPike of Alton and Ron Stephens of Caseyville and Sens. Kenneth Hall of East St. Louis and Frank Watson of Greenville.

Secretaries plan Oct. 1 meeting in St. Louis

Professional Secretaries International Tri-Cities Chapter will hold a regular monthly meeting at 6:15 p.m. Oct. 1 at Center Bank, St. Louis.

Members will be given a demonstration on the operation and capabilities of the Xerox Memory Typewriter.

After the demonstration and business meeting, members will have dinner in the downtown St. Louis area.

Secretaries interested in attending the meeting or wishing further information about the group are asked to contact Barb Bauer at 344-4112.

The city has received about $317,000 from the county. The city would have received about $600,000 if it received money directly from HUD rules, up to 20 percent of the federal money can be used for administrative costs.

The county's currently administered all Community Development money for county communities. Granite City and Alton have a special HUD status as "central cities" enabling the two to get money directly from HUD.

The county's proposal was sent to HUD's Chicago office at the request of 4th Ward Alderwoman Sharon Perjak.

Terminal Island federal facility near Los Angeles.

Beaton pleaded guilty to all charges.

Police Chief Bob Astorian said Beaton was linked with the local robbery through an investigation by Granite City detectives.

Detective Richard Schardan said he and two other detectives stalked out a house in the city a day after the robbery. He said police received a tip that Beaton lived in the house during his brief visit to this area. A hat belonging to Beaton was found in a dumpster in back of the house.

January 1988. Trustee Don Rea reminded the board of a previous discussion in which the recruitment of local residents as police officers was advocated.

"The argument has been that residents in the village are not qualified to be police officers. We would do what we are doing with Rick Hays, that being if we could pick someone otherwise qualified and enter into a contract to pay for his own police academy. A training through payroll deductions," Rea said.

The board voted unanimously to hire Wallace and Hays.

In other action, the trustees: Agreed to consider a request from Bill Morgan, village building inspector, who asked for a gasoline allowance.

Finley's car was stopped about 3:57 a.m. Thursday in the 1700 block of Madison Avenue by Madison patrolmen, with assistance from Venice police, after Finley's car was observed weaving.

A Granite City ambulance took Finley to St. Elizabeth Medical Center before he was transferred to St. Louis.

Finley underwent surgery Thursday and was out of intensive care on Friday, according to a spokesman for the St. Louis hospital.

Samuel L. Stovall Jr., 27, of Alorton, was charged with the shooting based on warrants issued by the Madison County state's attorney's office, according to an Illinois State Police spokesman. Madison County Associate Judge Charles Romani set Stovall's bond at $75,000.

Stovall was being held Friday by the Centerville Police Department, pending his transfer to the Madison County jail.

Stovall was arrested after Finley was able to provide details concerning the shooting. State Police said the motive for the shooting was unclear.

bers agree. Perjak also said she did not know if other aldermen would support a withdrawal when it comes to the full council. She said some county and area officials have been lobbying, urging aldermen to stay in the county program.

A committee meeting was expected to be held Friday evening.

Perjak said she will call for a special council meeting, probably soon this week, to vote on the issue.

The city has until Oct. 15 to inform HUD if it wants to set up its own Community Development program. After that date, if the city did not notify HUD, the city would automatically be in the county's program for another three years.

Schardan said.

Schardan said that after Beaton left this area following the robbery, Beaton called residents at the house. The phone conversation, monitored by police, revealed where Beaton was staying.

FBI special agents arrested Beaton on May 11, seven days after the robbery in Granite City, for robberies committed in California. An East St. Louis federal grand jury indicted Beaton on June 23 for the Granite City robbery.

Beaton was charged in California with the Granite City robbery because he was being held there as a suspect in the other robberies. According to the FBI report, Beaton had come to this city for a visit May 4.

Beaton stayed at a hotel near St. Louis Lambert International Airport during his visit and flew back to California shortly after the robbery, Schardan said.

Beaton, who lived in Westminster, Calif., was sentenced on Sept. 21. He was convicted July 21 after pleading guilty. No money was recovered from the Granite City robbery, according to the report.

An undetermined amount of cash was taken from the savings and loan.

Beaton was a resident of Granite City many years ago, Astorian said.

Area seniors meet on rejoining world of work

America's work force is changing, and many older citizens say they would like to be a part of a solution to the anticipated future worker shortage.

About 300 Metro East seniors from nine Illinois counties met all day at Fischer's Restaurant in Belleville on Friday to get some help in entering or re-entering the employment market.

The event was sponsored by the American Association of Retired Persons, Belleville Area College Programs and Services for Older Persons (PSOP), the National Council of Senior Citizens, Green Thumb Inc., and the Illinois Department on Aging through the Southwestern Illinois Area Agency on Aging and the Midland Area Agency on Aging.

Workshops on Interviewing, Do's and Don'ts, What Employers Look For, and an Applicant, and Communication Techniques were conducted.

Workshop panelists, leaders and speakers included representatives of the Belleville Area College Special Services Center; Mearl Justus, St. Clair County sheriff; Elster Wilder, management consultant, and representatives of business and industry.

"Sponsors of the training day believe that older workers have the experience, maturity and dependability that employers are seeking," a spokesman said.

"What seniors need is an opportunity to gain insight into today's world of work and obtain the information needed to compete for job openings as qualified applicants."

Lewis Waters, senior employment coordinator for SWIAAOC, said, "We believe that a few 'new tricks' added to past qualifications will enable many of the workshop participants to get the jobs they are seeking."

going on, it's taking up a lot of my time and it's taking more money for gas than I'm getting per month the inspector said.

Employers should allow time for school visits, survey finds

A new 1987 Metropolitan Life survey of American education proves the wisdom of the National Education Association's call for employers to grant employees released time for parent-teacher conferences, Mary Hatwood Futrell, NEA president said.
"This study represents an important acknowledgment of the major role parents play in the education of their children," Futrell said.
"NEA members understand that parents are the most important role models children have. If parents help teachers convey a love of learning to students, those students will succeed in school."

NEA has always believed that without the full participation of parents in the education of their children, it will be difficult for today's education reform movement to achieve top quality education for every child, she said. "Strong parent-teacher partnerships are central to educational excellence."
NEA established the Teacher-Parent Partnership Project in 1985. Designed by Home and School Institute Inc., the project now operates in 22 states across America and in American schools overseas. The program consists of a number of at-home activities designed to help parents help their children succeed in school.

Stanley's TD nips Kahoks in OT

By Dave Whaley
Executive sports editor

GRANITE CITY — It had been a while since Collinsville had gone 4-0 in the SWC.

At the end of four quarters at Memorial Stadium on Friday, the Kahoks still hadn't lost. But the Warriors took it to the punter and while game in overtime as Terry Stanley plunged in from a yard out for an exciting 14-7 win.

The win raised Granite City's record to 2-2 overall and 1-1 in conference play. Collinsville fell to 3-1 overall and 1-1 in the SWC. The game was tied 7-7 after four quarters. In overtime, a coin flip is held with the winner choosing to go on offense or defense. The Kahoks won the flip and elected to play defense first. Each team gets four downs from the opponents. Stanley, who finished with 66 yards on 13 carries, got nine on the first play and plunged in two plays later.

The fired-up Warrior defense went out and slammed the door on the Kahoks and waterbug fullback Todd Blaylock, who had 16 yards on only 17 carries. "We had all the momentum after Terry got nine yards on the first play," said Warrior coach Ron Yates. "I was going with Terry or Joe (Wallace) all the way there. Terry doesn't fumble the ball."

Stanley did a fine job with Len Whiteside, the Warriors' leading rusher, on the sidelines with a shoulder injury. Jeff Kohler replaced Whiteside in the backfield, but Stanley carried most of the load.

"What bothers me is we lost to them with their best back on the sidelines," said Kahok coach Bob Hollingshead. "That disappoints me."

When the Kahoks tried to score in overtime, Blaylock was buried for a loss of two, gained those yards back on the next two carries, then caught a desperation pass from Wayne Hayden while on the ground at the 10.

That was as good as the Warriors could contain the 5-6, 150-pound Blaylock all night. Granite City was backed up deep in its own territory late in the first quarter when they punted to the Kahoks. Collinsville started at the 34 and it took Blaylock only 32 yards to score with 58 seconds left in the opening quarter. Derek Norton's extra point made it 7-0.

After an exchange of punts (Brian Dix punted six times for a 33.5 average), the Warriors started at their own 48 and went 52 yards on 12 plays. The drive featured five pass completions from the suddenly hot Wallace for 41 yards. Dix caught two in a row for 21 yards and Kohler grabbed an eight-yard toss to move the ball to the 1.

After a procedure penalty, Wallace hit Jim Stout over the middle for a six-yard score with 1:22 left in the half. Kory Burton's extra point tied the game.

The Kahoks moved to the Warrior 12 late in the third quarter, but Burton recovered Steve Klein's fumble to end that threat. Sutphin fumbled and Dale Mayberry intercepted a pass to end Warrior threats in the fourth quarter.

But overtime belonged to Granite City. "We would have gone on defense if we had won the toss," Yates said, agreeing with Hollingshead's strategy. "That way the offense knows what it has to do."

"That's what I've always been taught," Hollingshead said of his decision. "That way if Granite doesn't score we kick the field goal right away. When they scored, I thought we could bounce back."

Yates was prepared to send Burton out for a field goal if the Warriors had been stopped in the first three plays, but Stanley's tough running made it unnecessary. Wallace was stopped on second down, but a face mask violation on the Kahoks (eight penalties for 41 yards) gave them the down over and Stanley cashed it in.

"We would have kicked a field goal on fourth down unless we were within a foot of the goal line," Yates said.

For Hollingshead, it was a game he thought his team let slip away. "When it got down to the second half we made crucial mistakes," he said. "I don't want to single any kids out. I think we're a better football team than Granite City. This was our year to get them. We were talking for touchdowns."

Hollingshead has never beaten Yates in four tries. The two were college football teammates and coaching colleagues at Granite City when both were assistants

Golf, volleyball teams keep pace hot

The Warrior golf and volleyball teams kept up their hot paces with wins on Thursday.

The golf team scored a 152-160 win over O'Fallon in a dual meet at Arlington. Playing the front nine, Mike Wilkinson once again took medal honors with a par 36. Wilkinson, Derek Triant and Chad Lane were consistently the Warriors' top three shooters and were again on Thursday.

Triant followed Wilkinson with a 37 and Lane was next at 38. Mike McCormick and Jon Los-tutter each shot a 41 to fill out the score.

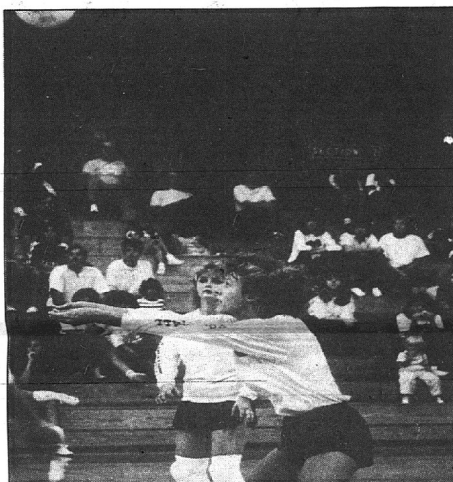

"Those three have been very consistent all year," coach Russ Chappell said. "Chad missed out once, but that's been it."

The Panthers were hurt when Steve Glazebrook, the area's top shooter, shot a 41.

The Warriors competed in the 11-team Centralia Invitational on Saturday. They travel to Belk Park in Wood River on Tuesday for a quad-meet with Wood River, Roxana and Edwardsville. It's their last shot at the Tigers before the regional.

Don Detenbeck's volleyball team regrouped nicely from its loss at Belleville West with a 15-2, 15-4 trouncing of the Alton Redwings at Memorial Gymnasium on Thursday.

The Warriors are 3-1 in Southwestern Conference play and 4-0 overall. They will get another shot at the Lady Maroons at home on Oct. 8. Granite City's next action is at Collinsville on Tuesday.

Kickers have some fun at Alton's expense, 7-0

By Dave Whaley

ALTON — It was a night for the Warrior front line players to dodge stray footballs instead of kick soccer balls.

They took care of the soccer portion early, getting four goals in the first half on route to a 7-0 Southwestern Conference win over Alton at Gordon Moore Park on Thursday for their seventh win in a row. Granite City, the top-rated team in the metro east, is now 8-1 and 5-0 in SWC play.

Troy Adamitis, Vince Darnell, Herb Heaton and Brett Broadwater all scored in the first half before Bob Strubberg added his first two varsity goals in the second half. Broadwater capped the scoring on a penalty kick.

Warrior players on the bench had to be alert to avoid footballs coming off the foot of a stray punter on an adjacent field. The Illinois Golden Eagles, a semi-pro football team, were holding a practice. But that was the only danger the Warriors faced all night.

Their only other problem was getting the right color socks for the junior varsity players they shuffled into the game. The things got out of hand. The JV players had to change from their white socks (same as Alton) to the varsity black.

"We got a chance to look at some of our junior varsity people tonight, so that was a good thing about it," Gene Baker said. "It was good to see Broadwater and Strubberg get on the scoreboard and Jim Burkhart played real well."

The game was never in much doubt after Adamitis got his sixth of the year after only 2:11 when he knocked in John Van Buskirk's centering pass from the left side. Adamitis missed a wide open net early in the second quarter, but that was all the Warriors missed.

Darnell got his third of the year with a beautiful header behind his back on Derek Wilkinson's free kick at 25:57. Then Heaton blasted a yoo-hoo ball behind beleaguered Redbird keeper Mark Haynes at 29:00. Broadwater followed with a rocket shot under the bar at 33:37.

The Warriors outshot Alton 16-1 in the half. As substitutes filled the field in the second half, Strubberg struck for two goals 39 seconds apart. Darnell assisted on one to give him a goal and two assists on the night.

"We got some breaks early which helped us," Baker said. "Alton is headed in the right direction. They have some players who are good workers."

The Warriors' game with 1985 state champion Quincy Notre Dame on Saturday was designated as Senior Night — or Senior Day. Tuesday's game with Collinsville, oddly enough, is the last home game outside of the Tournament of Champions.

A complete schedule for the tournament, which starts Oct. 5, will appear later this week. "It should be an awful good tournament," Baker said. "The top 10 teams in the St. Louis area will all be here, and all of the teams that will be here are in the top 20."

NOTES: The Warriors are seventh in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch poll. Collinsville is 12th. Granite City outshot Alton 25-3 as Randy Chapman played the whole game in goal to pick up his first shutout. Alton committed 25 fouls to 20 against the Warriors. The Warriors had seven corner kicks to none for Alton.

Ball, defense send Trojans past Cougars

BREESE — Nobody ever promised the Madison Trojans a rose garden.

Friday. In fact, for the first half of the game with Breese Central, the Cougars were a huge, painful thorn in the Trojans' side. For every Madison action, Breese Central had an equal and opposite reaction. Every Trojan juke was met with a Cougar jitter.

It was like watching the first two rounds of a heavyweight prizefight. But in the second half of the contest, Breese Central learned a valuable lesson: You can only rope-a-dope a power puncher so long before he sneaks in a knockout punch.

The Trojans landed two such flourishes in the final half of play to emerge from the duel with a 15-0 win over the pesky Cougars.

With the win, the Trojans raised their record to 3-1 on the season, while Breese fell to 1-3. The win for Madison was by no means a cakewalk. Both squads let choice scoring chances slip away in the early going, with the Cougars flogging a golden opportunity to poke first blood from the Trojans.

Breese Central became victims of what-could-have-been on their second drive of the game when Cougar fullback Ron Timmerman fumbled on the Trojan one-yard line with 49 seconds left in the first quarter.

The Cougars would not catch wind of paydirt for the remainder of the contest. "That was the key to the game right there," said Cougar coach Andy Kassebaum. "If we hadn't fumbled in the end zone, it might have been a completely

Local bowler in record book

By Dave Whaley
 Executive sports editor

GRANITE CITY—Randy Chaoth calls himself pretty lucky. Not let him kid you. He's also pretty darn good.

Chaoth bowls three nights a week at Bowland in Granite City, but he's far from your average beer league bowler. On Sept. 16, he bowled an 800 series, but it was hardly anything new to him. It was the ninth time he had done it.

Only 10 other bowlers have ever rolled nine 800 series, so when Chaoth gets his copy of the American Bowling Congress record book this winter, he's going to find his name prominently displayed.

"You have to be pretty lucky to do it," said Chaoth, 38, a computer operator at McDonnell-Douglas. "You usually need around 30-35 strikes to get 800. It's actually easier to bowl a 300 game than to bowl an 800 series."

Chaoth knows a thing or two about perfect games as well. He has 10 of them, with three of them coming as part of his 800 series.

"I'm very aware of where I am after two games in a series," Chaoth said. "And I have had many of them come right down to the last ball. I shot an 806 last week and have had series of 801 and 805."

His best series, ironically, was the first 800 he ever shot—an 857 in 1980. Since then, he has bowled one 800 every year. Chaoth would like to get more than one in a year and came very close again on Sept. 18.

"It came down to the last couple of frames and I ended with a 776," he said.

Chaoth started bowling when he went to Bowland as a teenager to apply for a part-time job.

"It came naturally to me," he said.

different game." Trojan coach Don Smith concurred with Kassebaum. "That was a big play for us," Smith said. "You never know what might have happened if they would've scored there. I think that gave our defense some confidence."

Breesee also failed to convert on its first possession of the game after driving to Madison's 14-yard line. They watched the opportunity dissolve when Trojan defensive end James Whitehead sacked Cougar quarterback Craig Becker on fourth and 3.

The game was scoreless at the half as much as a tribute to the effectiveness of the Madison defense as it was to the ineffectiveness of the Trojan offense.

The green machine offense failed to push the ball into Cougar turf in the first half and netted only 59 total yards in the half. Breesee fared only slightly better, amassing 73 yards in the first 24 minutes.

Madison came out of its rut with a flurry on the first drive of the second half as they mounted a 15-play, 67-yard drive to break the stalemate.

Trojan workhorse Ricky Ball capped the drive with a one-yard plunge with 2:39 remaining in the third quarter. The score was set up by a 40-yard aerial strike from quarterback Quincy Williams to split end Stephen Boyd on a third and 22 play.

Williams added the two-point conversion with a three-yard scamper, giving Madison an 8-0 lead.

Breesee opened the gate to another Trojan score late in the fourth quarter when they failed to convert on a fourth and 4 attempt from the Trojan 18.

A late hit penalty to Breesee moved the ball to the Cougar 3 and set the table for Ball's second visit to the end zone. Ball carried three times before pushing the pigskin over with 1:01 left on the clock, giving Madison its final margin of victory.

Ball handled the bulk of Madison's rushing workload, carrying 27 times for 97 yards.

In all, the Trojans collected 183 yards of offense while Breesee posted 161 yards on the night.

Kassebaum praised the Trojan defensive effort.

"They made some adjustments in the second half and they really shut us down," the Cougar coach said.

The fact his squad won without the ball-carrying services of halfback Ian Smith gave Trojan coach Don Smith reason for optimism.

"Hopefully this will be a confidence builder for us," Smith said. "We were without our fastest back (Smith) and we proved that we don't rely on one man to win games for us."

"Hopefully this will give us a little momentum heading into the last few weeks. We have to work hard for everything we get. And we worked hard for this win tonight."

UNOFFICIAL STATS: The Warriors outgained the Kahoks 173-148. Granite City had 128 yards rushing and 45 passing.

In addition to Stanley's 66 yards, Saphin had 35 on 16 carries. Wallace was seven of 13 for 45 yards, one touchdown and one interception. Dix caught three passes for 29 yards and Stout caught two for 12. The Warriors committed six penalties for 40 yards and made three turnovers. They had 10 first downs to seven for the Kahoks. Brian Dix, Dan Grayson, Ben Szedlar, Randy Odum and Burton were among those making big plays on defense as the Warriors sacked Hayden four times for 22 yards in losses.

The Kahoks had 133 yards on the ground, led by Blaylock's 116. Tom Gilliland, who entered the game with 300 yards in three games, was held to 21 yards on 10 carries. Hayden was 2 of 6 for 13 yards. Collinsville turned the ball over twice.
